Looking Ahead

First—Thanks so much for subscribing to Sorchia's Universe. 2016 promises to be an exciting year and I'm glad you are along for the ride. Not only is this the first year when quarterly newsletter will be available, but new books, new business partners, and new adventures are in the offing.

Just Like Gravity on sale at Amazon, Barnes and Noble, and at SorchiaDuBois.com in hardback, paperback, and Kindle versions. Actually three books in one, JLG is about reincarnation, karma, murder, and passion.

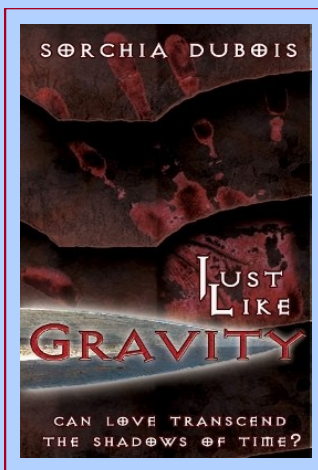

Watch for an exciting announcement later this summer concerning Zoraida Grey and the Family Stones—and the rest of the series which includes Zoraida Grey and the Voodoo King and Zoraida Grey and the Dark Tower. These are working titles, and may change, but you get the idea.

In May, you'll get a chance to download a free e-book with several Zoraida Grey stories PLUS a nifty Scottish romance.

In October, watch for the first installment of Castings—an anthology of witchy stories just in time for Halloween. This e-book will be free to subscribers.

The entire month of April is devoted to a madness called the A-Z Blog Challenge. The challenge is to post a blog post everyday during April, except Sundays. The topic or title of the first post starts with A, the topic or title of the second starts with B, and I bet you can figure it out from there.

In past challenges, I've chosen topics like Magic Words and Healing Crystals. My theme this time is

Things that go Bump in the Night.

Posts about spooks, haunts, evil fairies, ginnies and genies— everything from nasty little fairies called Alp-Luachra who crawl into your mouth if you fall asleep beside a stream to brain-munching Zombies.

Be sure to check out the critter du jour as I will post every day in April (except Sundays) until I run out of alphabet.

Watch for news about Zoraida Grey and the Family Stones coming SOON.
